

Selena Turner

Head of Consulting and Organisational Effectiveness

Selena is an organisational effectiveness and sustainable-performance expert with over 25 years' global experience both as an executive leader and leadership consultant, within complex organisations across a variety of industries and contexts.

As a senior executive, Selena has led high-performing teams including Human Resources, Transformation, Communication, Investor Relations, and Education and understands the value of exceptional leadership and teamwork in unlocking potential and delivering results.

As a trusted advisor to CEOs and Boards in industries including Finance, Aerospace, Maritime and Government, Selena has partnered to deliver industry-recognised cultural and organisational transformations, and to grow leadership development, inspire teams, and drive organisational success.

As co-founder of WTG Consulting, Selena is passionate about partnering with organisations to build leadership, team and HR capability, enabling organisations and their contributors to thrive in increasingly dynamic, complex and constantly evolving environments.

Selena has a special interest in designing and delivering leadership development programs, from emerging to C-suite leaders. Selena is an experienced Executive Coach and facilitator, and is committed to collaborating with leaders and teams to unlock curiosity, optimism, courage and wellbeing.
